SUMMARY OF JOHN

INTRODUCTION:

A. John is easily the simplest and yet the most profound of the four gospel records.

- 1. Matthew wrote for a Jewish audience.
- 2. Mark wrote for a Roman audience.
- 3. Luke wrote for a Greek audience.
- 4. John wrote for everybody.

B. There are five major divisions in the book:

- 1. The Incarnation of the Son of God (1:1-18)
- 2. The Presentation of the Son of God (1:19 - 4:54)
- 3. The Opposition to the Son of God. (5:1 - 12:50)
- 4. The Preparation of the Disciples by the Son of God. (13:1 - 17:26)
- 5. The Crucifixion and Resurrection of the Son of God. (18:1 - 21:25)

THE INCARNATION OF THE SON OF GOD. (1:1-18)

A. The first eighteen verses introduce the rest of the book and gives the background for the historical narrative that follows.

- 1. The eternal nature of Jesus is established.
- 2. The forerunner of Jesus is introduced.
- 3. Jesus' mission is clarified.
- 4. The rejection and acceptance Jesus will find in His ministry is noted.

THE PRESENTATION OF THE SON OF GOD. (1:19 - 4:54)

A. In this section Christ is under careful consideration and scrutiny by Israel.

- 1. He is introduced by John the Baptist who directs his own disciples to Christ.
- 2. Shortly John begins listing the seven signs which continue through the third section of the book.

- a. John carefully selects seven miracles out of the many that Christ accomplished (John 21:25) in order to build a concise case for His deity.
- b. They are called signs because they symbolize the life-changing results of belief in Jesus.
- c. The seven signs are:
 1. Water to wine: the ritual of law is replaced by the reality of grace. (2:1-11)
 2. Healing the nobleman's son: the gospel brings spiritual restoration. (4:46-54)
 3. Healing the paralytic: weakness is replaced by strength. (5:1-16)
 4. Feeding the multitude: Christ satisfies spiritual hunger. (6:1-13)
 5. Walking on water: the Lord transforms fear to faith. (6:16-21)
 6. Sight to the man born blind: Jesus overcomes darkness and brings light. (9:1-7)
 7. Raising of Lazarus: the gospel brings people from death to life. (11:1-44)

THE OPPOSITION TO THE SON OF GOD. (5:1 - 12:50)

- A. John's unusual pattern in these chapters is to record the reactions of belief and disbelief after the performance of one miracle before moving to the next.
- B. In a series of growing confrontations, John portrays the intense opposition that will culminate in the Lord's final rejection and crucifixion.
 1. Even though many people received Him, the inevitable crucifixion is foreshadowed in several places (2:4, 21-22; 7:6, 39; 11:51-52; 12:16).

THE PREPARATION OF THE DISCIPLES BY THE SON OF GOD. (13:1 - 17:26)

- A. John surveys the incarnation and public ministry of Jesus in twelve chapters, but radically changes the pace in the next five chapters to give a detailed account of a few crucial hours.
 1. In this clear and vivid recollection of Jesus' last discourse to His apostles, John captures the Lord's words of comfort and assurance to a group of fearful and confused followers.
 2. Jesus knows that in less than twenty-four hours, He will be on the cross.
 - a. Therefore, His last words speak of all the resources that will be at the disciple's disposal after His departure.
 - b. They will be indwelt and empowered by the Holy Spirit.
 3. The Upper Room Discourse contains the message of the epistles in capsule form as it reveals God's pattern for Christian living. Three key themes are developed:
 - a. Servanthood.
 - b. The Holy Spirit (the "Comforter").

c. Abiding in Christ.

THE CRUCIFIXION AND RESURRECTION OF THE SON OF GOD. (18:1 - 21:25)

- A. After recording Christ's great prayer for unity on behalf of His disciples and all who believe in Him "through their word" (17:20), John immediately launches into a dramatic description of:
 - 1. Christ's arrest.
 - 2. Christ's trials before Annas, Caiphas, and Pilate.
- B. In His crucifixion, Jesus willingly fulfills John the Baptist's prophetic words: "Behold the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!" John 1:29.
- C. John closes his profound gospel record with a particularly detailed account of the post-resurrection appearances of the Lord.
- D. The resurrection is the ultimate sign that points to Jesus as the Son of God.
