Relevance of Mark Today

- A. Contains major passages in reference to the Kingdom of God.
 - 1. Jesus stated, some in his audience would not die until they say the Kingdom come with power (9:1).
 - 2. This shows the false teaching of the premillennial claim.
 - 3. Note the order: Mark 9:1; then Acts 17,8; the Acts 1;26 - 2:4.
 - B. Mark 16:16 is of major significance in the proclamation of the Plan of Salvation.
 - C. The main point of relevance is the presentation of Jesus as the Son of God.

CONCLUSION

- A. Why God preserved this Book for us today.
 - B. MARK ABOUNDS IN CASE AFTER CASE OF MIRACULOUS ACTIVITIES BY JESUS.
 - 1. They demonstrated His divinity.
 - 2. They confirmed the Word preached by His spokesmen.
 - 3. Modern claims of miraculous powers, do not conform to the characteristics of the miracles set forth in this book.
 - 4. No one today feeds 4000, or 5000,; etc.
 - 5. Most if not all claimed miracle workers today is for show, none conform to the teachings and examples set forth in Mark.
 - 6. The purpose of the signs, to confirm the Word, and to establish the faith has been achieved. (Heb. 2:1-4).
 - C. The acknowledgment of this main theme of Mark and all of the New Testament is the key to the appreciation and appropriation of His blessings to man. The relevance of this brief but informative book is apparent to those who read it with care.
