AddRan Christian College

Early Roots Of Texas Christian University
Ft. Worth/Thorp Spring/Waco/Ft. Worth, Texas

Founded By Joseph, Addison & Randolph Clark

Little Known Facts

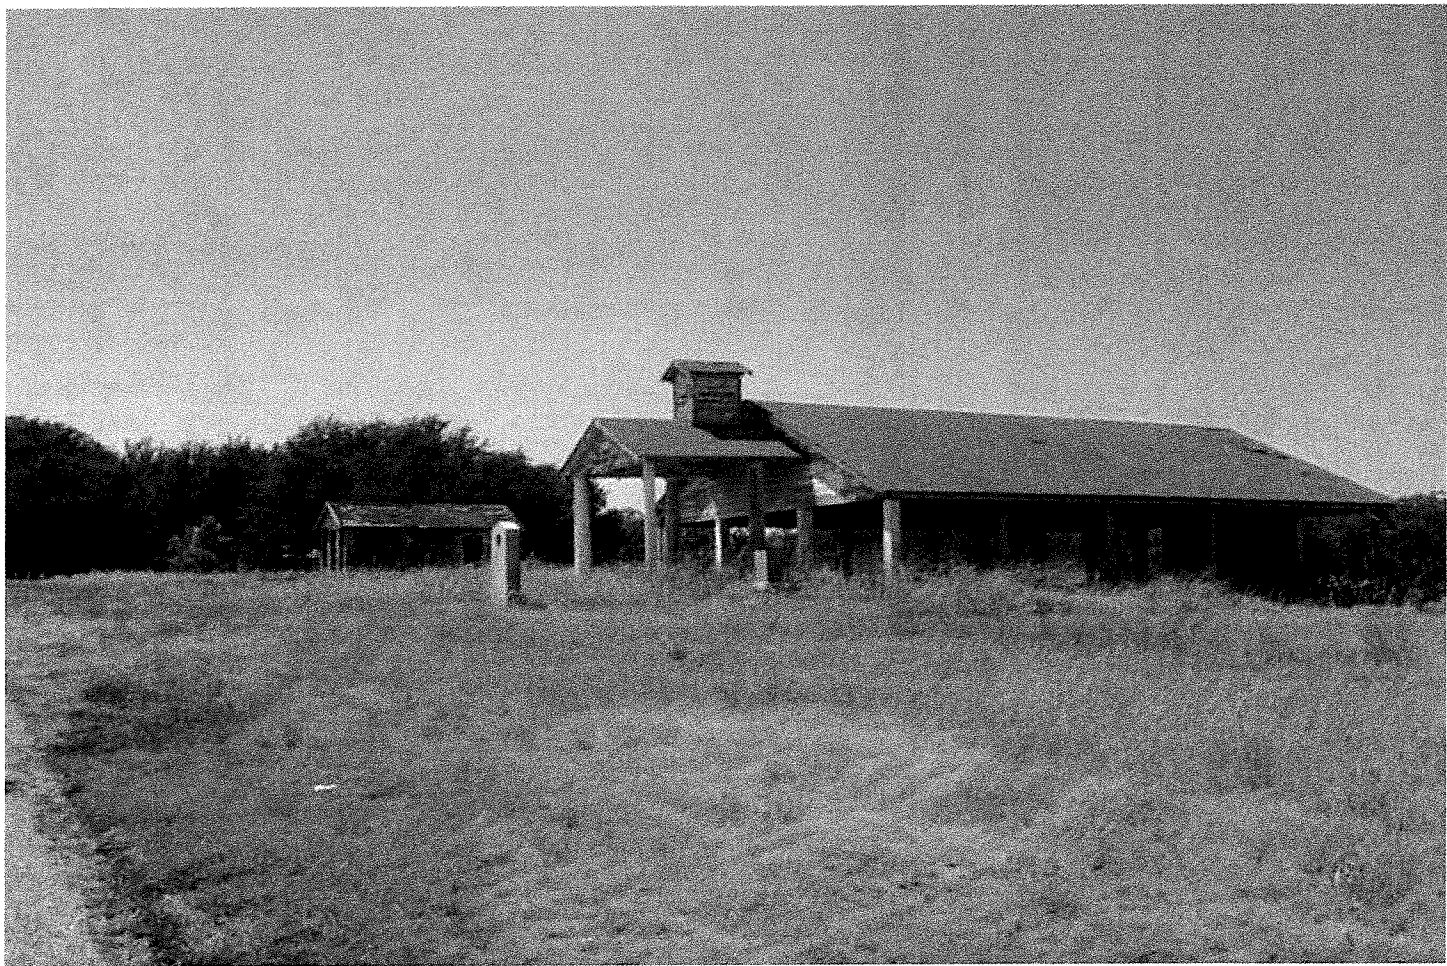

According to Randolph's book, AddRan College was named by Addison in memory of his son AddRan. Addison believed, "This would be an inspiration to labor to make the name stand for something worthy," wrote Randolph. AddRan died at age three of diphtheria in Fort Worth about 1872. A marble slab in the Pioneer Rest Cemetery at Fort Worth is inscribed "AddRan."
