HOLY SPIRIT BAPTISM & WATER BAPTISM

INTRO: There is a great deal of difference in Holy Spirit Baptism and Water Baptism. Many do not realize how important each of these baptisms is. We must know how to rightly divide the Word to know when and where and why each baptism is used. This misunderstanding has caused no end of trouble.

HOLY SPIRIT BAPTISM	WATER BAPTISM
The Element Is the Spirit. Acts 1:5	The Element Is Water. Acts 8:37-38; Acts 10:47
Was Administered by Christ. John 1:33; Matt. 3:11.	Was Administered by Disciples. Matt. 28:19; 1 Cor. 1:14
Was a Promise Received. Luke 4:48-49; Acts 2:1-4; Acts 10; Joel 2:28.	Was a Command to Be Obeyed. Acts 2:38; Acts 10:48
Was to Reveal and Confirm. John 16:13; Heb. 2:3-4	Was for Remission of Sins. Acts 2:38, 22:16
Did Not Put into Name of Christ. Matt. 3:11	Is in Name of Christ. Matt. 28:19; Acts 19:5
Not Raised to Walk in New Life. Acts 2:1-4	Buried and Raised. Col. 2:12; Rom. 6:3-4
Does Not Put One into Christ. Vine and Branches. John 15:1-6; Acts 8:12-16	Put One into Christ. Rom. 6:3; Gal. 3:27
Did Not Save. Acts 2:1-4	Is unto Salvation. Mark 16:16; 1 Pet. 3:21
Is No Longer Needed. John 16:13; Heb. 2:3-4; James 1:25. Perfect Law	Is Needed So Long As Salvation Is Needed. Mark 16:16
Ceased by A.D. 64. Eph. 4:5. Only one Baptism commanded.	Is unto the End of the World. Matt. 28:19-20

CONCL: We must not confuse these two baptisms. Holy Spirit Baptism fulfilled a purpose that is past. Everyone today needs Water Baptism to have the forgiveness of sins.
